DH@UNL
The first DH@UNL event of 2015 is next week: We're holding a semester kick-off event in the “Talk Zone” in Love Library, which is right next to Media Services (more info on that coming soon). The event is Wednesday, January 21, from 4:00-5:30 p.m. We’re holding the kick-off in this more public space of Love Library in the hopes of getting some foot traffic and reaching out to people in the university community who do not yet know about DH@UNL— in addition to providing an opportunity for existing members of our DH community to spend some time together and learn more about what we’re all doing.

Cultural Ambassadors
The application period for the Cultural Ambassadors Program is starting today. Your students can find all the information on this webpage:

UNL Call for Papers
University of Nebraska Online Worldwide is excited to announce a call for proposals for the 2015 Innovation in Pedagogy and Technology Symposium. This year’s theme will be Partnering for Success. The symposium is an excellent opportunity for attendees to learn from nationally recognized experts, share their experiences, and learn from the initiatives of colleagues from across the system.
Submit your proposal here: http://unit.nebraska.edu/submit-a-proposal.
We invite you to join us for a presentation including a question and answer session with reception to follow; event is open to the public.

Professor Wettlaufer is a core faculty member of the Comparative Literature, Women’s and Gender Studies and European Studies departments. She brings to light a rich and nearly forgotten culture of women’s artistic production, allowing us to understand the nineteenth-century in more complex and nuanced ways across the borders of gender, genre, and nation.

UNL City Campus Heritage Room, 6:30 – 8:30 p.m.
“History in Film” Czech Film Series
(Komensky Club Tuesday Movie Nights, Spring 2015)

All movies are shown at 6:30 at Sunflower room, East Campus Union. Screenings are followed by aftertalks by distinguished guests and discussions. Pizza and soda are served.

January 13: The King’s Baker (Císařův Pekar, M. Frič, 1952; 110 min.)

Guest Speaker: Dr. Louis Reith

February 3: John Huss (Jan Hus, O. Vávra, 1954, 125 min.)

Guest Speaker: Dr. Stephen Lahey

A timely portrait of the ministry, trial and martyrdom of the fifteenth century Bohemian priest John Hus, who built on the reforms of John Wycliffe, taught the Bible in the vernacular and who influenced Martin Luther a century later.

April 7: Good Soldier Švejk (Dobrý voják Švejk; K. Steklý, 1956, 105 min.)

Guest Speaker: Dr. Vladimír Polách

Rudolph II, the Holy Roman Emperor, does not have a simple life. And yet he manages to complicate it even more with his frequent outbursts of anger. While he searches for a mythical Golem, an animated clay statue, Matthew the Baker is thrown into the dungeon for selling the special buns for the emperor to people. Matthew is accidentally mistaken for the emperor and takes his place. And when the Golem is finally found, it will complicate things beyond comprehension...
Set during WWI, when around many soldiers serving in Austrian army were Czechs. Hašek participated in this conflict himself and many of the situations and characters are inspired by his experience. Movie offers a series of absurd episodes, and it explores futility of conflict, and characters serving in the war, creating timeless worldly comical masterpiece.
ACTFL 2015 Call for Proposals

Deadline: Wednesday, January 14, 2015
11:59 p.m. Eastern Standard Time

This is your final reminder! Submit a proposal now for the 2015 Annual Convention and World Languages Expo of the American Council on the Teaching of Foreign Languages (ACTFL), November 20-22, 2015, at the San Diego Convention Center in San Diego, California.

Your proposal should be one that will inspire the audience, keep them engaged and, ultimately, help them transform their classroom. The entire selection process is designed to provide attendees with an exciting array of sessions and events to further knowledge and skills to become better, well-informed teachers, professors, and administrators. We welcome language educators at all levels and of all languages to submit a proposal.

Submit Proposal

Please note: When you log in, it is very important that you carefully read all the information in the Submission Guidelines and Presenter Responsibilities before proceeding to complete your online submission. There is also a helpful video that you can watch as well that will walk you through the steps. All proposals for consideration must be submitted online and will not be accepted after the deadline date.

ACTFL Members: Your login for the Call for Proposals is the same as your ACTFL member login. Don't know your login and password? Contact the Membership Department at: membership@actfl.org.

Non-ACTFL Members: You will need to “create an account” with ACTFL before logging in to submit a proposal.

If you have proposal questions, please contact the Convention Department at: convention@actfl.org.
The ACLA is now accepting abstract submissions for the undergraduate seminar, which will be held at the 2015 ACLA Annual Meeting in Seattle, Washington (March 26th - 29th).

Submissions will be received between January 7th and the deadline of January 31st, 2015. Abstracts should be no longer than 250 words. Abstracts, along with contact information, should be sent to Milan Vidaković (organizer of the seminar) at milan@uw.edu. Seminar participants will be notified of their acceptance by mid-February.

Additional information about the ACLA's 2015 Annual Meeting can be found on the ACLA's website at http://acla.org/

Should you have any questions, please feel free to contact the ACLA at info@acla.org.

Sincerely,

Andy Anderson

If you elected to receive your W-2 Wage and Tax Statement exclusively online*, it is now available through the Firefly website where you can view, save and print your 2014 W-2 information. Beginning January 2015, you will be able to access 2012 through 2014 online W-2’s if you had enrolled for online delivery for all three years.

*If you did not elect to receive your W-2 online, you will be receiving a paper copy and will not have access to the online version in Firefly at any time.

To access your W-2, log into Firefly and click the Employee Self Service option, then on Payment. Select the W-2 Wage and Tax Statement option.

Note: Once you click on , a security verification pop-up window will appear. Please enter your last four digits of your social security number.

Contact your campus Payroll Office if you have questions about your W-2 or need a copy of a previous year’s information.

Hints & Tips
• If you are a Macintosh user and are having problems viewing your W-2, you need to install the PDF Download 3.0.0.2. Click here for instructions on how to install.

• You must have Adobe Reader 9, X, or XI installed on your machine to view your W-2. If you have the Reader installed, but still can’t view your W-2, validate you do not have any pending updates as these updates may inhibit your ability to view your W-2. To check for updates, open your Adobe Reader and select Help > Check for Updates. Please restart your computer after you installed the updates.

• To print your W-2, click the print icon within the PDF viewer as shown to the right. Note: your print icon may look different depending on the version of Adobe Reader you currently use.
