Grad Student Insurance

On November 13, 2014, Central Administration will roll out an additional student health insurance plan for graduate assistants. The Bronze Plan is the University’s qualifying insurance option for the Affordable Care Act. Graduate assistants will now have a choice of two health insurance plans: the StudentBlue plan and the Bronze Plan. The Health Center is offering four information sessions to talk about the options and the advantages/disadvantages:

Thursday, 11/6, 9-10 AM, East Campus Union
Friday, 11/7, 9:30-10:30 AM, Health Center
Monday, 11/10, 3:30-4:30 PM, Health Center
Tuesday, 11/11, 3:30-4:30 PM, East Campus Union

Bravos!

Bravo to Patricia Perez for helping at the Nebraska Achievement Banquet on Sunday, November 2.

Kudos to Iker Gonzalez Allende and Jose Gonzalez who were awarded funding in support of their research from the College Research, Scholarship, and Creative Activities Enhancement Program for Faculty in the Humanities and Social Sciences

Please send your announcements, Bravos and events for the weekly newsletter to Casandra (csiefkes2@unl.edu) by 5 pm on Thursdays.
Dear Colleague,

CALL FOR PROPOSALS extended to December 3 – this is an opportunity you don’t want to miss!

The Department of Foreign Languages at Georgia Southern University invites proposal submissions for the twelfth annual Southeast Coastal Conference on Languages and Literatures (SECCLL). The deadline for submissions has been extended to December 3.

Running March 26-27, 2015, in historic Savannah, Georgia, SECCLL brings together educators and scholars from both public and private institutions of higher education, encouraging a rigorous and productive exchange among academics.

Proposals may be submitted in subject areas such as Arabic, Classics, East Asian/Chinese, French, German, Spanish, Open Graduate Student Session, and Special Topics in Language, Literature, Culture, Pedagogy and Film. Presentations are limited to 20 minutes (9–10 double-spaced pages). Pre-organized panel proposals are encouraged.

What if your topic is Comparative Literature? Hispanic Women Writers? Study Abroad? Afro-Hispanic Studies? Yes, we’re interested in your proposal. For the complete list of possible proposal topics and additional details about the conference, visit www.georgiasouthern.edu/seccll.

Proposals for the conference MUST all be submitted online, using the Digital Commons program. If you already have a Digital Commons account, please log on and submit your proposal. If not, go to http://digitalcommons.georgiasouthern.edu/seccll, create an account and initiate the abstract submission process.

We look forward to receiving your submission.

Best wishes,

Jorge W. Suazo, Ph.D.

Conference Director, SE Coastal Conference on Languages and Literatures
